

cc: Security
02

May 6, 1986

Dear Bob,

On behalf of Harvard Business School and the Advanced Management Program (AMP), I want to thank you for agreeing to speak to the AMP reunion on Thursday, May 8.

To reconfirm, you are scheduled to speak from 0945 to 10:30 a.m. on Thursday May 8, and your topic has been described as:

"International Terrorism".

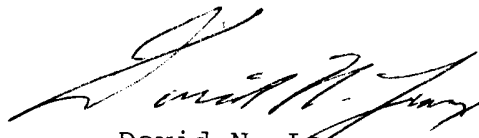

We hope you will talk about 20-30 minutes and then take questions.

Directions:

If your driver can bring you to the Pennsylvania Avenue entrance of the J.W. Marriott Hotel at 14th and Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W., your driver may park or wait there while you are speaking. There will be a hotel security employee to meet you at the Pennsylvania Avenue entrance and escort you to the Grand Ballroom (level B), two levels down, where you will speak. (There will be a sign outside the door saying HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL.) I will meet you at the Grand Ballroom and will introduce you.

The group will be approximately 110 people about 40% of them from other countries. For your information, a copy of the full program is enclosed.

Thanks again,

David N. Laux
(Program Chairman)
Director of Asian Affairs
National Security Council

The Honorable
Robert M. Gates
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Encl: 1

PROGRAM

80TH AMP HARVARD REUNION
MAY 7-10, 1986
J.W. MARRIOTT HOTEL, WASHINGTON, D.C.

THEME: The U.S. Economy and The International Economic Outlook

Thursday, May 8, 1986

SEMINAR SESSION - GRAND BALLROOM - (B LEVEL)

9:00 to 9:45 a.m.	William E. Brock, III, Secretary of Labor, formerly U.S. Trade Representative Topic: Problems in International Trade
9:45 to 10:30 a.m.	Robert M. Gates, Deputy Director, Central Intelligence Agency Topic: International Terrorism
	Break
11:00 to 11:40 a.m.	Richard E. Lyng, Secretary of Agriculture Topic: International Agricultural Trade, Problems, and Prospects
2:15 to 3:15 p.m.	Private guided tour of diplomatic reception rooms (8th floor) of the State Department which contain one of America's greatest collections of fine and decorative art of the 18th and 19th centuries. Tour is conducted by Edward Stone, Director of the White House Preservation Fund, and a graduate of the Harvard Business School.
3:30 p.m.	Special Briefing at the State Department (East Auditorium Room 2925) - Mark Palmer, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for European Affairs Topic: US/USSR Relations
4:10 p.m.	Arnold L. Raphael, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Near East and South Asian Affairs Topic: Situation in the Middle East
7:30 p.m.	Reception and Dinner: National Air and Space Museum of the Smithsonian Institute. Speaker: Dr. George A. Keyworth, former Science Advisor to President Reagan. Topic: Likely Technological Developments in the Next 15 Years that will Change the World.

Harvard '80 AMP Reunion

2

Friday, May 9, 1986

SEMINAR SESSION - GRAND BALLROOM - (B LEVEL)

9:00 to Malcolm Baldrige, Secretary of Commerce
9:45 a.m. Topic: U.S. and International Trade Prospects

9:45 to D. Lowell Jensen, Deputy Attorney General
10:30 a.m. Topic: International Narcotics

Break

11:00 to Dr. Beryl W. Sprinkel, Chairman, Council of 11:45 a.m. Economic Advisors
Topic: Prospects for the U.S. Economy

12 Noon Capitol Hill luncheon, Caucus Room of the Cannon
Congressional Office Building.